News Digest.

We have accounts of fires at Philadelphia and Painted Point, Steuben Co., N. Y., involving a loss of about $75,000. A destructive fire is also raging in the pine forests north and east of Albany, on the line between New York and Massachusetts.

A dreadful disaster occurred near Camden, S. C., on Saturday, by the sinking of a boat containing a pic-nic party of children. Twenty-nine boys and girls were drowned.

A synopsis of the foreign news by the Bravo, three days later, will be found in our telegraph columns.

Three persons were killed in an altercation near Easton, Pa., on Monday.

A break has occurred in the Welland Canal, which will delay navigation for three or four days.

Raising a Rig on the Doughfaces.

Decidedly the best joke—indeed the only joke—connected with the Charleston Convention, was that played off by a sable son of Africa, who hid himself on board the steamer S. R. Spaulding, when returning with the New England delegates from Charleston, and thus sought to gain his freedom by the "aid and comfort" of Northern Doughfaces. The fugitive "chattel" was discovered the day after the steamer left Charleston, to the infinite horror of CALEB CUSHING and Company. The idea of being suspected of helping a "nigger" to escape from Slavery was too much for these Democratic worthies. Nothing would do but the immediate return of the unlucky "chattel" to the thraldom from which he had fled. He was accordingly placed on board a Southward-bound steamer, consigned to his Charleston owners, and New England Democracy breathed free again.

A NUMBER OF YOUTHS are in durance at Washington, to answer for having disturbed religious worship in the churches of the capital. Their favorite occupation, for several Sundays, has been an effort to break up the services by throwing stones and lumps of ice through the church windows; and it is added, as a "singular fact," that the offenders come from families of the highest respectability. Respect for the parents has caused the church officers to refrain from prosecution until the evil has become too serious to be longer winked at. The only wonder is, that these errant young gentlemen have contented themselves with pummeling the windows of a church: had they aped Congressional manners to the fullest extent, each would have dirked or killed a man or two.—They have failed to profit as they might have done by the brilliant example daily set them.

IN RICHMOND, Va., there is considerable excitement concerning a mysterious "flight of stones" against the house of a widow woman in that city. The Richmond Dispatch says: "The rocks and bricks, however, continued to crash the window glass during the day, and that, too, notwithstanding the presence of scores of citizens, who gathered about the house and in it, but discovered none. One or two of the night police, hearing of the affair, seated themselves in one of the rooms, and could see the rocks and bricks fall around them, but could not tell from whence they came. An outsider declared that he saw a stone arise from the ground and fly through the window, and others made statements equally as absurd; but no discovery was made, notwithstanding the pelting continued until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when the medium seemed to have tired of his unprofitable work.

A NOVEL CASE of habeas corpus, involving curious points of law, was recently tried before Judge S. M. MOORE, of the Circuit Court, Covington, Ky. A resident in that city named WILLIAM ROSS, a short time since became enamored with his step-daughter, MARGARET COLEMAN, who reciprocated his affections, and a marriage engagement was the consequence. But the affianced pair found that their relationship was among the degrees prohibited by the laws of Kentucky. But the river was easily passed, and once in Ohio, the restrictions of the law would be removed—marriage between blood relatives alone bring prohibited in that State. They were married, but on returning to Kentucky, the young lady's guardian sued out a writ of habeas corpus, and the Court sustained his claim.

SOME OF THE YOUNG GENTLEMEN of the Troy University have been playing a bovine trick upon the faculty. They fastened a cow by the horns to the altar, with her offspring by her side. The faculty, however, have not yet discovered the fun of the proceeding, and incline to regard it in a serious light. Apology or explanation are the only alternatives offered to the delinquents. In addition to this the troubles of the offenders are augmented by a warrant issued by the owner of the animals, which are said to be seriously injured by the experiment. A "fellow feeling" should have made the students at least "kind" to the calf.

CLERICAL CURIOSITIES are becoming common. The SPURGEON of England seems to have a rival in Pennsylvania. It is said that that a youth of seventeen, by the name of CRAMMOND KENNEDY, is electrifying and edifying the people of the Keystone State. The panegyric bestowed upon him by an exchange would crown with additional glory the head of our most famous pulpit celebrities, and his head is said to measure twenty-four inches, and to bear great resemblance to that of WEBSTER. Measuring the head, however, is rather a novel way of measuring the qualifications of a pupil orator.

A SINGULAR EXHIBIT.—The New York Tribune publishes a list of debtors to the United States whose amount of indebtedness in the aggregate is $19,000,000; $13,000,000 of which the Tribune says are due on accounts instituted for one year prior to July 1st, 1859. More than one half of the debtors are officers in the army and navy.

The Aims of the Republican Party.

The N. Y. Courier and Enquirer, in an article on the present position of the two great parties of the Republic, well says:

"While the Democratic party is thus making every concession deemed necessary to ensure its obtaining the control of the Government, the Republican party has a certain and fixed object in view, and by abiding by certain and well-defined principles, steadily pursues its course. It does not advocate one doctrine in one part of the country, and a different one in another. Its creed does not admit of various interpretations, for its language is too plain for that. The party is termed sectional by its opponents, and is so termed because it opposes what?—not Slavery, but its extension. It opposes this because it does not believe that the Constitution recognizes that institution. It believes that Slavery is merely a local institution—one to be confined to the States in which it now exists, and where over it those States alone have control. The Republican party is opposed to the policy of the present Administration, to its Federal corruption and usurpation, to the doctrine that the Constitution carries Slavery into the Territories, to the re-opening of the African Slave-trade, to any inequality of rights among citizens; and it favors the admission of Kansas, the restoring the Federal Government to the principles held by Washington and Jefferson, the maintaining inviolate the rights of the States, the defending the soil of every State and Territory from lawless invasion, and the preserving the integrity of the Union, and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws passed in pursuance thereof. If this creed is a sectional one, then surely our early Statesmen were the most sectional of men. They are not so regarded, and yet they would have subscribed to all in this creed. Daily events are proving which of the two political parties is really the sectional one. The result of the election in Philadelphia, and the assembling of the Convention at Wheeling, are proofs that the efforts of the Democracy to misrepresent the Republican doctrines, are no longer effectual. The adjournment of the Charleston Convention will give the Republican cause greater strength. It proves the weakness of its opponents, and it shews to what expedients a party will be driven when it possesses no fixed principles. It renders doubly sure the prospects of a Republican victory at the next election. The morale of its opponents is gone, and they cannot recover it."

From Washington.

Special Dispatch to the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON, May 4.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

The House mustered a quorum, and considerable business was transacted, including the passage of a bill for the relief of Cassius M. Clay. This is to remunerate him for damages sustained by the performance of duties as captain in the Mexican war.

INFLUX TO WASHINGTON.

Delegates Charleston are expected here to-morrow morning; also about two hundred editorial excurtionists from the West on a visit to Mount Vernon, at the invitation of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company.—This meeting will fill Washington with politicians for a day or two, and afford an excellent opportunity for an interchange of sentiments between editors and delegates.

THE DEATH OF MR. HARRIS.

Private advices from Japan confirm the reported death of Townsend Harris, U. S. Commissioner to Yeddo.

CONSULATES IN CHINA.

Action will be taken in Congress to provide for the establishment of Consulates at the important Chinese ports recently opened to trade by treaty. American interests there demand protection, which cannot be protected without such legislation.

THE ADMISSION OF KANSAS.

Southern Senators have determined to manage, if possible, so as to keep Kansas out of the Union till after the Presidential election, lest her vote might exercise a controlling influence in case the choice should come to the House. Her admission would make eighteen States necessary to choose. They have now some little hope of getting the requisite seventeen for a Southern man, or failing in that, to defeat the election by the House, and thus devolve it upon the Senate, where their chances will be greater. But even here they much prefer not to have two Republican Senators from Kansas. They may have power to play this game, but will find it dangerous, as the people of the Free States will become so exasperated by this new outrage upon Kansas that they will settle the contest at the polls beyond a peradventure.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Saturday last, just after dinner, Mr. Christopher Chapin, of East Troy, met with an accident while here, that came near costing him his life. He had stopped his team—a span of fine gray horses—on the corner of Whitewater and Main streets, and was passing out between them, on the pole, when they started suddenly, running at full speed over the bridge by Birge's Mill. He slipped down between them, struggling to get on one of the horses, and was carried, clinging to them, some ten or fifteen rods, when he fell, receiving a shocking cut over the right eye, and several severe contusions in various parts of the body. He was picked up and carried into the Montour House, where he was immediately attended by Drs. Horton and Wheeler, who dressed his wounds. After a careful examination, finding his hurts not dangerous, he was taken to the residence of Wm Hunter, where he remained till Wednesday last, when he was so far recovered as to be removed home. The horses, after running a short distance, were stopped, no material damage being done to them, though the wagon was considerably smashed up.—Whitewater Register.

SPEECH OF THE LEADER OF THE SOUTHERN BOLTERS.—The New York Evening Post speaks of the speech of the leader of the Southern extremists in the Democratic National Convention in the following terms:

"Mr. Yancy's speech is considered by those most familiar with his previous efforts to have excelled them all. He created a profound sensation. He thoroughly roused the roused the southern feeling, and was rapturously applauded throughout his oration.—Handsome, graceful, courteous, brilliant, thoroughly informed upon his subject, and deply sensible of its importance to the vital interests of his section, he made a magnificent oppeal. There was nothing common, nothing personal; there were no boasts, no taunts, no threats; but from the beginning to the end of his speech, he was the gentleman and the scholar."

GOT UP IN FORM.—A very respectable German citizen lost his wife, and yesterday announced in handbill form, that were posted about the city, the hour of her funeral and the order of services. It was signed by his own name. This is making rather more of a business matter of it than is common.—Madison Argus.

George Wilkes' Letter on the Fight.

To the Editor of the London Times:

SIR:—I am desired to state, on the part of Mr. John C. Heenan, in answer to your report of this morning, that neither he nor any person authorized to act for him, requested the referee at the late encounter between Sayers and himself to stop the fight when the ring was broken into. On the contrary, he and his friends, nearly all of whom were grouped in a little handful at his corner, repeatedly protested against the invasion of the ropes, and demanded that the fight should not be interrupted. In proof of this, Heenan breasted his way three times through the crowd of persons who poured into the arena from the side of Sayers, to renew the combat after that outrage had taken place, and who refused to leave the ring, and did not do so until Sayers was withdrawn. He wishes me to say, moreover, that he feels sure that, had not that occurrence taken place, he would have soon made his victory manifest to the most prejudiced person on the ground. As to the suggestion which has been kindly made by the editor of Bell's Life, that Sayers and he should have a Belt apiece, he begs to say that, while he will cheerfully subscribe to a new testimonial for his brave and honorable adversary, he will have none other than the one he came 3,000 miles to get, and which he honestly feels he has already won. He believes, however, he can win it again, if required to do so, and, if it be really amenable to conquest by a stranger, he will not leave your shores until he brings his late contest to a new and due conclusion.

The friends of Heenan, while they acquit the upright and gallant Sayers and his immediate backers from any participation in the violent interruption of the contest, wish to declare the clearness of Heenan's supporters from any complicity with that outrage, and in this connection desire me to say that when a man in our country, who has been engaged to subdue another, requires outside aid to help him, as was given to Sayers in the 39th round, he is considered to be beaten. In short, whenever "humanity" justifies such interference, the verdict is against the man whose conquered and hopeless condition requires the practical interposition of such a sentiment.

On the part of many Americans in London who have called upon me, we repudiate entirely the idea expressed at the conclusion of your article—namely, that Heenan's American supporters "consent to the contest being considered a drawn battle." They, on the contrary, insist that the fight, if not decided to be already won by Heenan, shall be considered as still pending, and subject to renewal at the earliest possible day. Through a note from the referee, which now lies before me, I learn he has refused a new arbitrament this week, (according to the usual custom) "on the ground of humanity;" but while the friends of Mr. Heenan cannot object to such a highly creditable motive, they disclaim for him the requirement of any such consideration, he being quite capable of responding to the orders of the referee, and will so respond at an hour's notice.

In conclusion, I wish to say for myself, that in the haste of writing my long report, the battle part of which has been published here in an illustrated extra, a few errors crept in which could not be corrected for that edition, as I had no time allowed me either to revise my manuscript or read its proof. One of those errors was the omission of the word "at" in the last line of one of the closing rounds, when, in speaking of the conduct of the persons who broke into the ring, it should read, "they kicked at and struck at him," instead of "kicked and struck him."

I send with this a corrected copy of that report, and if you will lay it before the gentleman who prepared your ably written account of Wednesday, and he will point any errors I have made therein, I will cheerfully correct it for perusal in America.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE WILKES.

ADELPHI HOTEL, LONDON, April 13.

One Thousand Dollars Reward.

From the Ottumwa (Iowa) Gazette.

Is offered for the arrest of George Lawrence and B. A. McComb, or either of them. Gov. Kirkwood, of Iowa, offers $500, and the citizens of Ottumwa, Iowa, offer $500, to be paid on the delivery of said Lawrence and McComb, or either of them, at Ottumwa, Iowa. And it is expected the authorities or citizens of Rockford will offer a like sum.

DESCRIPTION OF GEO. LAWRENCE.—About 5 feet 4 or 5 inches in height; florid complexion; auburn or brown hair; generally wears whiskers on chin, colored black; rather full blue eyes; a small scar (cut) between corner of mouth and cheek bone on left side (it may be on the right side;) heavy set, with a very full breast; short, thick, hard hand; is used to work, but always works with gloves on; when last seen he wore a pair of seal skin gauntlets; scarcely ever walks with his hands in his pockets; has a rolling sailor gait; very seldom puts his feet on anything while sitting; not tidy in his dress; generally wears shirt loose about his neck; is very fond of horses; brags some about his wrestling at side holds; is rather quick in his movements, and is rather communicative. It is believed that he neither uses liquor or tobacco in any manner.

DESCRIPTION OF MCCOMB.—McComb is about five feet 7 or 8 inches in height; very dark complexion; black hair, with a very little gray interspersed; blue eyes; rather down-cast look; very heavy beard, when not shaved, and coal black; drinks a good deal of liquor; is not very talkative; has a scar on his forehead, but it cannot be seen without pushing the hair back; about this scar hair more gray; is between 25 and 30 years old; looks like an Indian; is a notorious villain and horse thief, and served a term in the Illinois State Prison for mail robbing—is connected with a gang of horse thieves in Northern Illinois, and goes by the nick name of "Lant McComb."

On the 16th of March last, George Lawrence seduced Laura J. Harvey from her home in Rockford, Ill., under a sham marriage, and, by agreement, met with said McComb on the Mississippi River. On the 27th of March, the three arrived at Ottumwa, Iowa, and on the night of the 29th they murdered Laura and threw her body into the Des Moines river at this place, and made their escape. We can get no trace of Lawrence. McComb has been traced to Iowa City, where he disposed of their team and wagon, and from there to his father's house, near Rockford, Ill., and from there to Beloit, Wis., since which we have no intelligence. Laura was only 15 years old, and of a most respectable family residing in Rockford, Ill.

JOSEPH H. FLINT,
County Judge of Wapella Co., Iowa.
Ottumwa, Iowa, April 27, 1860.

THE PUGILISTS IN ENGLAND.—The London Times of April 21st, the latest date, says:

"The angry spirit which on the day of the contest appeared to influence the American supporters of Heenan, and which led to most partial accounts of the struggle being transmitted to America, has in a great measure passed off, and there is no doubt that by the next mail more justice will be done to Sayers. The great redeeming virtue of the prize ring—a love of fair play—was certainly never better exemplified than in the recent contest, and the fact of both men strongly claiming to have won when the fight was stopped of itself, proves how equally the scale was balanced to the last.

In the interval which has elapsed since Tuesday, the referee has received some hundreds of letters from all parts of the kingdom enclosing money for a testimonial to Sayers. Nearly all the letters are anonymous, and state that the writers never saw a prize-fight, or even heard of Sayers till the recent contest, and they simply send their individual contributions to him to mark their admiration of his courage in defending the English belt against such fearful odds. As we have said, they come from all parts of England, Ireland and Scotland, and contain sums varying from a shilling's worth of postage stamps up to notes for £25."

A CONVENTION OF VINE GROWERS has been called by vine growing and agricultural associations in the South. A Georgia paper, in recommending the project to Southern attention, remarks that more good will come from it to the country than from the Convention now held in Charleston. Associations for the culture of the vine, and also for making wine, are being formed in many parts of the country. It is only necessary to increase the knowledge of the subject to a degree equal to the zeal in which it is taken up insure success.

CONGRESS recently passed a law which provides that when any person shall endorse on any letter his or her name and place of residence as writer thereof, the same, after remaining uncalled for at the office to which it is directed, thirty days, or the time the writer may direct, shall be returned by mail to said writer, and that no such letter shall be advertised, nor shall the same be treated as dead letters, until so returned to the post office of the writer, and there remaining one quarter.

Municipal Court.

U. S. MARSHAL LEWIS, U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY, AND U. S. POSTMASTER WANT A CHANGE OF VENUE FROM A COURT OF RECORD TO A JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.—The case of JEHU H. LEWIS was continued yesterday, he being accompanied by U. S. District Attorney UPHAM, and Postmaster STEEVER as counsel. Judge MALLORY decided that the State could proceed upon the first count. Mr. LEWIS then asked for a change of venue—filing an affidavit that he believed the Judge to be prejudiced, &c. As he rose to speak, he said, "If the Court please, I will state my reasons for wishing the change." Mr. STEEVER immediately reminded him that there were reporters present, and Mr. LEWIS finished thus—

"May it please the Court, by the advice of my counsel, I will not state my reasons."

A greater part of the afternoon was consumed by the learned counsel in trying to prove that in cases of simple misdemeanor, the Judge acted only in the capacity of a Justice of the Peace, and in trying to prove the justice of a change of venue in this case for that reason. Judge MALLORY finally stated that he would give an opinion this morning at 9 o'clock.

The following cases were also disposed of yesterday:

Mary Connolly, drunk, &c., penalty and costs, $11,50, or 60 days in jail.

G. S. Stimson, disorderly, penalty and costs $2,50, or 5 days in jail.

Jas. Galligan, disorderly, penalty and costs $6,93, or 15 days in jail.

T. Neuman, disorderly, continued to May 9, at 2 o'clock.

May 8.—Grand Jury came into Court and presented a true bill of indictment against John Smith, for larceny of about $60 in money from the house of Jacob Kien. John Smith was arraigned in the afternoon and plead guilty, stating that he had no intention of stealing the money, that he found it in a bed where he slept and was overcome by the temptation to appropriate it. He was sentenced to the State Prison for one year.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The Board of Aldermen, at their meeting Monday night, recommended the closing of the two High Schools, and the opening of one Central High School, the cost of which to the School Fund would not exceed $1,500 per annum—the rest of the expenses to be defrayed by the means of rate bills. The Board of School Commissioners hold a special meeting to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock, the consider this recommendation and other matters relating to the Public Schools.

BASE BALL.—The Milwaukee Base Ball Club meet for practice at 3 o'clock this (Wednesday) afternoon, on the Fair Grounds. An omnibus will leave the corner of Main and Main and Wisconsin streets, at ten minutes before three, to convey members to the ground.

How soon are we to have other clubs formed in this city? The game is a manly one, and deserves all encouragement. There ought to be three, or four, Base Ball Clubs organized in our city this season. Who will follow the lead of the Milwaukee Base Ball Club?

CHOICE WINES AND LIQUORS.—An old acquaintance of the Milwaukee public, CHARLEY RICE, has opened a wholesale and retail Wine and Liquor store in the basement of LUDINGTON'S Block, corner of East Water and Wisconsin streets. Mr. RICE proposes to keep on hand a superior stock and wishes his friends and the public to call and see him. He guarantees all that he sells to be what he represents, and his scale of prices is remarkably low.

ARREST OF MILES.—JOHN MILES, of the firm of MILES & LACY, Commission Merchant, was arrested on Monday night in the city. The public are familiar with the charge.

It is stated that a deputy sheriff offered to produce him for $50, and, on that amount being furnished, he was arrested. As to the truth of this latter story, we are unable at present to judge.

THE SOUP HOUSE.—On Saturday May 5, eighty-eight families applied at the Soup House for help; making in all about five hundred persons, of whom probably four hundred were children. Among these were distributed one barrel of flour, three hundred pounds of corn meal, ten bushels of potatoes, two bushels of beans, one hundred pounds of meat, and seventy-five loaves of bread.

BOOKS RECEIVED.—"Wolfe of the Knoll," by Mrs. GEORGE L. MARSH. New York, CHAS. SCRIBNER; Milwaukee, TERRY & CLEAVER.

"Buell's Mercantile Cypher" for condensing telegrams, by J. S. BUELL, Buffalo, New York.

THE RECENT RAINS.—We learn, from our country exchanges, that the recent rains have extended all over the State and that the growing crops have everywhere been benefitted by the visitation. The promise of an abundant harvest is excellent, and the prospect for good prices is decidedly flattering.

Annual Meeting of the Bar Association.

The annual meeting of the Bar Association was held at the Court House at 2 o'clock P. M., yesterday. The election resulted in the choice of the following gentlemen.

J. E. ARNOLD, President.
WM. P. LYNDE, Vice President.
JNO. B. D. COGSWELL, Secretary.
OTIS H. WALDO, Treasurer.
H. L PALMER, and LEVI HUBBELL, Executive Committee.

Mr. EMMONS moved the admission of Hon. TIMOTHY O. HOWE, of Green Bay, as an honorary member of the Association. The motion was adopted, and Mr. HOWE, who was present, signed the constitution.

On motion of Gen. S. P. COON, the meeting adjourned to 10 o'clock A. M. Saturday, May 12th.

JNO. B. D. COGGSWELL, Sec'y.

WEBB'S THEATRE.—Miss EMMA WEBB was unfortunate in the selection of pieces on Monday (her benefit) night. "Smike" is a nondescript play at the best; lacking the original power of the story from which it is taken; and not by any means the play in which Miss WEBB will ever attain to any unusual honor. The audience, however, which was large, was kept in the best of spirits throughout the evening by the grotesque and ludicrous side play.

Miss WEBB's talents or fame will not suffer any by her inability to render naturally such a character as Smike.

After the performance, she was called before the curtain, and returned thanks in a very appropriate "off-hand" speech.

This evening we are to have KOTZEBUE'S standard play of The Stranger, in which Miss EMMA WEBB personates Mrs. HALLER.

THE HIGH SCHOOLS.—The following resolution was introduced into the Board of Aldermen on Monday evening, and passed:

WHEREAS, The population and the financial condition of the city of Milwaukee does not warrant the maintainance of two High Schools of Education, and whereas the interests of Education does demand the maintainance of a central High School for the city, therefore,

Resolved, The Board of Councilors concurring, that we recommend to the Board of School Commissioners that they close the Seventh and the Second Ward High Schools, and organize a central Normal School, to be located wherever the School Board shall deem best for the interests of the city, and that they proceed to appoint Teachers for said School; provided that the appropriation from the School Fund towards defraying the expenses of such a School, shall not exceed $1,500 for the ensuing year, the balance to be made up by tuition fees and appropriation from Normal Fund.

THE SALE OF FURNITURE at the Walker House will commence again this morning at 10 o'clock. Among the various articles to be sold this morning are hair mattrasses, spring beds, a rose wood piano, bureaus, &c., &c.

HALF FARE ON THE M. & M. R. R.—The Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R will issue tickets for Chicago at half fare during the Republican Convention week. Tickets by the way of Milwaukee or by Janesville.

ANOTHER SHOWER.—We had another fine shower yesterday afternoon. The Spring rains have come most opportunely, and vegetation is making rapid strides.

A DONATION.—Received through the hands of GEORGE DYER, Esq., thirty-one dollars, a collection taken at the Church of the Redeemer on Sunday, April 29.

MANAGERS OF THE SOUP HOUSE.

WE ARE INDEBTED to Messrs. BAMFORD & BALDWIN, the enterprising News Agents at the Milwaukee & Mississippi depot, for New York papers ahead of mail.

REMOVAL.—BAYLEY & GREENSLADE have removed their manufactory of Iron Railing works to Main street, one block South of Newhall House.

REMEMBER the great book sale will be continued at WALL'S City Auction Room this evening at 8 o'clock.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—The Mill on the Floss, by the author of "Adam Bede;" Woman, by Mitchell; Eclectic for May, 1860; Godey's Magazine for May; Peterson's Magazine, June, 1860; Ladies' Repository for May; Illustrated London News, April 21, containing a fine colored engraving; Yankee Notions for June; Tunis' R. R. Guide for May, 1860. Newspapers and Periodicals daily received in advance of the mails.

REMOVAL.—The Manhattan Restaurant is removed to 30 Spring street, two doors above the American House. It will be ready for business to-day. F. C. BAKER, in making the change, wishes to return thanks through our columns to his many friends for their past favors, and desires them to give him a call in his new quarters. my7-3t

The Coming Conventions.

The "Old Gentlemen's Party" meet in Convention at Baltimore to day, to save the Union by nominating a "Conservative" candidate for the Presidency. They profess to be greatly encouraged by the Democratic breakdown at Charleston; and are not without hopes that one, or the other of the Democratic factions will join the "Constitutional Union" standard. It is difficult to guess upon whom their choice will fall. When they supposed that their action would control that of the Republican Convention at Chicago, they talked strongly of nominating Judge McLean, or Edward Bates. But latterly, these gentlemen seem to have gone out of favor: some of the "Union" leaders having discovered that they are both more or less tainted with abolitionism—a fatal blemish in the eyes of all the respectable old gentlemen who run with the "Constitutional Union" machine.

Next to Baltimore, comes the National Republican Convention at Chicago. This will be most numerously attended and the eyes of the entire Union are already turned thither in anxious expectation. It is not yet clear who the Chicago nominee may be; though the chances are decidedly in favor of Senator Seward. Firmly convinced, as we are, that he is the strongest man before the people in the Republican ranks, we hope to see him selected by general acclaim for our standard-bearer in the coming contest.

Following the Chicago Convention, come the two Conventions of the divided Democracy; the Southern Convention at Richmond, Va., on the 12th of June, and the Northern Convention at Baltimore, on the 18th of June. It is now supposed that the managers of these two bodies will fill up the large gaps made in them by the Charleston feud, with fresh Delegates manufactured to order. Each will then claim to be the "regular" National Democratic Convention, and each will put forward its separate candidates and platform. Who these candidates are to be is still a matter of great doubt, though probably Douglas will lead one faction and Hunter the other. But in no event, as matters now stand, can either attain the White House. That, we fully believe, will be occupied by a Republican tenant after the 4th of March next.

Correspondence of the News.

Mills House, Charleston, S. C., April 30th, 1860.

To the Editor of the News:

The [illegible] has broke. The Cincinnati Platform has been [illegible], and the fire-eaters have withdrawn from the Convention. Other men are present from the States represented by these fanatics, and are ready and willing to take their places in the Convention. They insist that the delegates who have withdrawn misrepresent their States. * * * The Convention has adjourned until to-morrow morning, when it is believed it will nominate Judge Douglas, with a good Southern Democrat for Vice President, and a good [illegible]. The most of these Southern fanatics are devoid of both common sense and brains, yet there are a few exceptions.

The above extracts from the lachrymose letter of "Sioux," in yesterday's News, betray great bitterness of spirit towards those obstinate "fanatics," who refused to swallow the Douglas pill, unless sugar-coated with a Pro-Slavery Platform. It may be that they lacked both "common sense and brains," but they seem to have been more than a match, in both these respects, for their Northern brethren.

Editorial Convention—Correction.

The day fixed for the meeting of the Editorial Association is the "20th" day of June, being the third Wednesday of that month, and not the 16th (Saturday) as has appeared in the published call. The Corresponding Secretary requests the several papers publishing the call to make the correction.

It is confidently expected that the gathering on the occasion will be a numerous and, of course, highly respectable one.

Congressman Potter, Again.—The Sentinel will have it that Congressman Potter—Potter who didn't fight a duel—don't come home to show his wounds, and recount his hair breadth escapes, &c., &c. It may be so, but we are greatly mistaken if this valorous gentleman did not "exhibit" himself at Milwaukee, Racine and other points, to say nothing of the Church ovation at East Troy, for the purpose of receiving simply the congratulations of his party friends, and turning to political account the supposed sympathy his valorous conduct had excited in his favor.—Madison Patriot.

Mr. Potter did not visit Milwaukee at all, during his recent brief visit home; so that the Patriot will discover that it is "greatly mistaken" in the above, as in other assertions that it has made about him. Mr. Potter had no need to "exhibit" himself anywhere to secure the warm sympathy and approving judgment of the People of this Congressional District.

In a very bad Predicament.—The adjournment of the Charleston Convention to Baltimore without making any nomination, has put a damper on the prospects of our Republican friends, both North and South.—News, of yesterday.

The discovery of this "damper" is original with the News. Its "Republican friends," certainly, are not aware of its existence. The proceedings at Charleston, verifying all that the Republican press have said about the extravagant pretensions and exacting demands of the Pro-Slavery Fanatics, have confirmed every Republican in the faith and disgusted many a good Northern Democrat. The "prospects" of the Republican Party are bright enough, while the National Democracy are unmistakably "in a bad predicament."

Connecticut.—The inaugural message of Governor Buckingham, of Connecticut, was delivered on the second instant. The Governor reports a balance of $15,000 in the State Treasury, with an aggregate indebtedness of $134,142. The message recommends the passage of a registry law and a regulation requiring voters to read before voting. The general Railroad Commissioners report that the whole length of road within the State is six hundred and two miles, and the total cost $29,861,532,04, of which $18,727,717.-31 has been paid in; the gross income has been $3,527,903.79; the net income has been $1,221,797 51, or four per cent on the cost. There are in the State 73 banks, with an aggregate capital of $21,626,167; a circulation of $7,702,996; deposits amounting to $5,465,540; specie amounting to $950,138, specie funds deposited in Boston and New York for the redemption of their bills, $2,-935,054. There are also 37 saving banks and 27 savings and building associations, with deposits to the amount of $16,132,820.-32.

Sequel to a Tragedy.—Our readers will generally remember the Mercer and Heberton tragedy that occurred in Philadelphia many years since. A man of some wealth and social position named Heberton, had seduced Miss Mercer, a young woman of seventeen, and refused to repair the matter by marriage. A brother took vengeance into his own hands, waylaid the seducer in a ferry boat and shot him dead. For this he was tried for murder and acquitted. Since that period he led a wild career, and finally, about two years since, was shot in a restaurant in Philadelphia. The sister was married a few years subsequent to the death of Heberton, lived unhappily with her husband, was divorced, and we find her death recorded in an exchange. The whole family have now passed away.

A religious review, in treating of the Books of the New Testament, informs us that the Gospel of Matthew was written by Matthew; the Gospel of Mark by Mark, &c. These are very curious facts indeed. One might have supposed that the Gospel of Matthew was written by Mark and vice versa. This reviewer must be the author of the celebrated "conundrum:" Do you know why I call my son Hans? No. Well, because it is his name.

Compliments carried to an extravagant extent become offences. There is a material difference between prettily asking for a lock of hair, and taking the whole scalp.

Gov. Seward's Predictions Verified.

The result at Charleston is a remarkable verification of what Gov. Seward told the Democrats on the floor of the Senate some years ago when they were passing the Nebraska and Lecompton bills. In his speech of March, 17, 1854, he said:

"Senators from the slaveholding States! You, too, suppose that you are securing peace as well as victory in this transaction. I tell you now, as I told you in 1850, that it is an error. * * Even if those whom you denounce as factionists in the North, would let it rest, you yourselves must evoke it from its grave. * * Hereafter, when having taken advantage—which, in the North, will be called fraudulent—of the last of those compromises to become, as you will be called the aggressors, by breaking the other, as will be alleged, in violation of plighted faith and honor, while the slavery agitation is rising higher than ever before, and while your ancient friends and those whom you persist in regarding as enemies, shall have been driven together by a common and universal sense of your injustice, what new mode of restoring peace and harmony will you then propose? What statesman will there be in the South, then, who can bear the flag of truce? What statesman in the North who can meditate the acceptance of your new proposals? * * Agitation of slavery must go on in some form, for all the world around you is engaged in it. It is then high time for you to consider where you may expect to meet it next. I much mistake if, in that case, you do not meet it there where we, who once were slaveholding States, as you now are, have met, and, happily for us, succumbed before it."

Again, when the Lecompton Bill was under consideration two years ago, he said:—

"This whole controversy is at last reduced and contracted into a quarrel on your part for revenge against wise advisers. Instead of listening to their counsels, you will suppress their remonstrances and punish their authors as mutineers. Nevertheless you will not succeed in discrediting and proscribing them; for either you provide for yourselves a defeat, which the signs of the times indicate, or, in lieu of that, you will go down to 1860 under the influence of sentiments and feelings very different from that of 1858. A party in power in the first year of an Administration is apt to be bold and violent. A party going out of power is generally timid and hesitating. You will search the summits in New Hampshire, the plains in Mexico, and the halls of St. James in London, to find a Presidential candidate in 1860, who was against the Conference-Lecompton Kansas bill in 1858; and then, if these honorable gentlemen with whom I have labored so pleasantly shall be found yet remaining within your political communion, I think I can promise them that you will come to a much better understanding with them than you have now."

The Connecticut Wide-Awakes.

From the N. Y. Tribune.

One peculiar feature in the Connecticut campaign was the formation of "Wide-Awake" Clubs. These Clubs are composed of young men who, while holding themselves ready for any duty during the day, are organized more particularly for escort and torch-light duty in the evening at meetings and in processions. As such Clubs will be organized very extensively during the approaching Presidential campaign, and as all information about the Connecticut companies will be valuable to those who propose to establish other companies, we propose to give a description of the dress and drill of the Hartford Wide-Awakes.

The uniform of the Company consists of a glazed cap and a large enameled-cloth cape, made very full, and reaching down about the length of the arm, so that when the arm is hanging by the side of the cape entirely covers the sleeve of the coat. The capes are buttoned or tied in front, so that when the arm is ready to carry the torch the coat sleeve is not exposed, and the action of the arm is not impeded. The officers have overcoats of the enameled cloth, made in the style known as the Inverness mantle. The object of the cape, beside being a very striking uniform, is to protect the clothes from oil which may drop from the torches. A coat would be expensive, and the cape was adopted for the rank and file on account of its cheapness. The torches are made of tin and will hold about a quart each. They are hung in a ring like a ship's compass, and will swing in every direction, and by adapting themselves to the motion of the carrier, are always upright. The sticks are about five feet long and an inch and a half in diameter. The officers of the company wear glazed hats instead of caps, and instead of torches they carry colored lanterns—the captain a red lantern and the lieutenants a green or blue.—Whole cost of uniform and torch $2,25.

The men are regularly drilled in marching, and are as strictly under arms as any military company. In this lies the great beauty and efficiency of the organization. The regularity of their movement in a torch light procession elicits the warmest admiration from all who see them; and their obedience to the word of command and their strict discipline render them of great service in escort duty, and their attendance upon out-of-door meetings. The rules of marching are as strictly enforced with the Wide-Awakes as in the 7th Regiment; and cigar-smoking, talking, leaving the ranks, and other irregularities, are no more allowed in the one than in the other corps.

The organization is extremely popular in Hartford. The young men and older ones are also enrolling themselves as members, and at their last parade they turned out over 400 strong. The Waterbury Company have improved upon the Hartford Company in their uniform. They have their caps trimmed with a facing of white cloth or leather, which relieves the solid black of the enameled cloth, and gives the dress a lighter and more military appearance. Their torches also are got up in a little better style.

Gov. Seward in Massachusetts.

Letter to the N. Y. Tribune.

How silly some people appear in being so alarmed at the result of the Rhode Island election! They are like a flock of sheep startled by the skipping of a young lamb. This is courting defeat. I have found scarcely a Republican who does not prefer Seward for our next Presidential candidate. Still, many fear he is not very popular. Everybody wants Seward, but everybody thinks that everybody else don't want him. I have conversed with men from all parts of the country, North and West, and the result of my observation is as stated above. Now, it is useless to think of reconciling conservatism. Its union with us will be only on condition of its ruling, which would only work the ruin and demoralization of our party. If we cannot elect our choice for President on the strength of our principles this time, let us wait patiently until we can, thus showing the purity of our intentions, and the final result will be a strong and victorious party, whose movements shall not be governed by availability of candidates, but by principles, laid deep and firm in the hearts of the people. But I believe we can elect our choice. Don't let us show the white weather just on the eve of battle. The availability plan is all gammon, and it will prove, as it always has in the long run, a suicidal policy. Give us a candidate who represents the North on the the great question of the century, and you shall see that "At last, there is a North."

Boston, April 12, 1860. S. S.

A Brilliant Wedding.—Yesterday at noon, says the Washington Star of the 2nd inst., the Hon. J. E. Bouligny, M. C. from Louisiana, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Elizabeth Parker, the second daughter of our well-known fellow-citizen Mr. George Parker. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, and the officiating clergyman was the Rev. M. Butler, the pastor of Trinity (Episcopal) Church. The guests witnessing the ceremony, though not very numerous, embraced a number of gentlemen in distinguished public positions here and their families—the President, Secretaries Cobb, Thompson and Toucey, among them. The bridesmaids were Miss Fanny Parker (a sister of the bride,) Miss Hamilton, of New York, Miss Catlin, of New York, Miss Alice Maury and Miss Sarah Franklin, of this city, and Miss Hammond, a daughter of Senator Hammond, of South Carolina; and the groomsmen were Dr. Parker, Sheriff of New Orleans, John Maury, Esq., of this city, and the Hon. Messrs. Ruffin, of North Carolina, Edmundson, of Virginia, and Miles, of South Carolina, of the House of Representatives, and another gentleman from Louisiana, whose name we have not learned. The bride is said to have been attired with most exquisite taste—in point lace over a white satin dress, with a point lace veil, and orange flowers in her hair, and rich sparkling diamonds in the ornaments she wore. Shortly after the ceremony the reception took place, which was attended by a large concourse of the fashionable friends of Mr. Parker's family and those of his new son-in-law, their equipages lining C and Four-and-a-half streets for a long distance. A sumptuous entertainment was prepared for the company, and an exquisite string band discoursed delicious music from the conservatory attached to the dwelling. At 3 p. m. the reception closed, and subsequently the gay wedding party dined together at Mr. Parker's. We hear that the happy pair start to-day on a northern wedding tour. This was, perhaps, the most brilliant wedding that has taken place in the federal metropolis.

Take not too much pride in mere manners. The finest dandy is not better at a bow than a puppy is at a bow-wow.

It may fairly be contended that inveterate laziness is the most effective labor-saving machine ever invented.

A Year of Annexations.

We find the following sketch in the Bien-etre Social, of Bruxelles. The Bienetre quotes it from the Post Heiri, of Soleure:

March.—The Empire annexes Savoy and Nice, this annexation having become a "geographical necessity." Austria stirs not; she is delighted that this trick is played against Victor Emanuel. Prussia says nothing, reserving to herself "freedom of action."

April.—In order to obtain its "natural frontiers," the Empire annexes the Rhenish provinces. Austria stirs not; she is delighted at seeing this trick played against Prussia, who had deserted her in Lombardy.—Prussia pockets the affront, reserving to herself "freedom of action" in regard to Hanover.

May.—If Venetia is annexed to Lombardy "because the Venetians speak Italian," Prussia stirs not; she rejoices to see this trick played against Austria, who had abandoned her on the Rhine. Austria is beaten, as last year, having sent their army into battle without their breakfasts.

June.—The Empire annexes Belgium "because the Belgians speak French." England protests. Austria and Prussia stir not; they revenge themselves of England's abandonment in Italy and on the Rhine.

July.—The Empire reclaims Baden and Westphalia "because the majority of the inhabitants are Catholics, and have already formed part of the great Empire." Austria stirs not, for she is delighted to see Prussia lose Westphalia. Prussia stirs not, for she prefers Baden to be French rather than Austrian.

August.—In consequence of the annexation of Baden, that also of Wurtemberg and Bavaria has become a "geographical necessity" to the Empire. Austria is delighted to see Prussia lose the support of Protestant Wurtemberg, and Prussia is delighted to see Austria lose the support of Catholic Bavaria; Germany stirs not. At Jena the students sing, "What is the Fatherland?" Napoleon answers this question.

September.—The Empire annexes Hanover, Oldenburg and Mecklenburg, "because the possession of the Northern sea-coast has become necessary to France as a natural frontier." At Berlin they seriously propose to exchange the pointed helmets of the army for the kepis. The German Diet, after the annexation of Frankfort, have hid themselves in Warlbourg; they refer to a Committee the question of the organization of the Federal army.

October.—The possession of the Kingdom of Saxony, and of the Duchies, has become for the Empire "a political necessity," because the European equilibrium requires that Prussia and Austria should be held in check by a third Great Power. The Diet flies to Rugen, and in order to calm public opinion, now awakened, vote the election of a statue to Arndt. The Committee appointed by the Diet are not ready to report on the organization of the army; therefore, the troops cannot be marched against Napoleon.

November.—The Empire reaches to the Vistula. The annexation of Prussia has become for the Empire "a moral necessity," as the Emperor must at any price keep his word. Austria rubs her hands with joy, being rid of other rivals in Germany. Russia stands aghast at seeing the French on the Vistula, and exclaims, "This is not what I wished."

December.—All the territory reaching from the Alps to the Carpathians in Hungary has become for the Empire "a geographical necessity." The Germanic Diet has completed the military organization. The statue of Arndt is unveiled on "le Jour des Innocents," in the Isle of Rugen.

Pickings from Vanity Fair.

Vanity Fair overflows, this week, with good things. Of course the Prize Fight comes in for a large share of desperately good jokes. We select the following:

Plural, and not Singular.—The Benecia Boy ought not to be surprised at the result of his fight with Sayers. The stakes being Two Hundred Pounds, how could they be Won?

Initiary.—Since the Heenan-Sayers battle, it is decided that the letters P. R. shall hereafter stand, not for Prize Ring, but for Pitiable Referee.

The only thing not drawn by Leslie's Artists.—The first Blood.

What the American Eagle gives Brittania in the P. R.—He-licks-her, (Elixer.)

The Flour of Chivalry.—Heenan—after going through the Mill without Bolting.

The New Style of Spring Coat.—Coats a la Heenan, choler a la Sayers, one-sided tales a la Bell's Life, and turned out pockets a la Morrissey.

The English Style of Roping in.—Breaking through the ropes to defeat our Champion.

A Paradox of the P. R.—Pugilists fight in a "ring," and each of the combatants has his "corner." How is this? Has it been reserved for the P. R., to solve the problem of squaring the circle.

Some others are promiscuously clever, so witness these:

Scene at a Post Office Window.—Augustus Jackson—Aw see a lattah for Augustus Jackson advertised.

Clerk—Yes, sir,—cook of the schooner "Dirty Jane"—is that you?

Something New under the Sun.—We have somehow been used to consider the word "cob" to have some reference to a short-tailed horse; but after meeting with five successive copies of the "New York Ledger," a conviction has, in a manner, been forced upon us, that "Cobb" is a long-tailed donkey. How is this?

Conventional Joke.—The Southern Democrats are evidently determined to keep the door well closed against Republicanism.—Their dead Lock in Congress having failed last winter, they have fixed the matter at Charleston, by a tremendous Bolt!

Most Daring "Cavalry Charge" on Record.—Clark Mills' $ charge, on his two horses at Washington.

"Orel!"—Our Japanese contributor last week, seemed to think there was something peculiar in the Envoys asking for a Bath immediately on landing at San Francisco. We consider it perfectly natural that a man should long for re-immersion in fresh water, who had been born and passed their lives in a jet d' eau, (Jeddo.)

Advertisement.—This is to certify that for the purpose of testing the whiskey sold by Mr. Terrence O'Flagherty, as the pure Irish Mountain Dew, I have carefully tested samples of the same on each day of the past week. My experience has extended over a period of time embraced between 9 A. M. and 12 P. M., and have been upon fractions of the quart taken indiscriminately from various barrels. I found it in a body stout and strong, though I had little trouble in getting it down, and holding it when down. In specific gravity, it was exceedingly light; the undersigned having been able to carry home large quantities. Up to this time he has not become aware, by these tests, of the presence of any foreign agents, with the slight exception of particles of sugar and minute fragments of lemon peel. He freely recommends the article to public confidence.

Sir John and Lady Crampton.

From the Philadelphia Press.

Sir John's father, Dr. Philip Crampton, had been Surgeon General to the British forces in Ireland, and also has the most extensive practice in Doublin for half a centry. In 1839 he was created a baronet, whereby he became Sir Philip Crampton. Dying in 1858, his title descended to his son, who had previously been created Knight Grand Cross of the Bath, for being sent home by President Pierce on account of his enlisting recruits for the British army on American soil during the Russian war of 1854. Sir John, by his father's death, succeeded to the baronetcy in Ireland. The bridegroom is now 53 years old. The present is his first plunge out of single blessedness.

Lady Crampton, who is a remarkable pretty woman, is 23 years old, having been born in the Rue de la Victoire, on the 1st of September, 1837. Her mother is a French prima donna, (Mademoiselle Sona Bezer) who married Michael Wm. Balfe, the well-known Irish composer and singer. His operas are well known everywhere, from "The Siege of Castile" and the "Bohemian Girl" down to "The Rose of Castile" and "Satanella," his last productions.

Last year the young lady accepted an engagement at the Opera in St. Petersburgh, where the event has occurred which happily converts Victorie Balfe into Lady Crampton. As Sir John Crampton, resided for several years in Washington, we have gone a little into detail for the information of his friends and acquaintances there.

Profit in Keeping Hens.—The proceeds of nineteen hens for one year, ending February 17, 1860, by a careful account (and sold too, at a price below par.) I find to be $33 10. The cost of food, all told, $12. Leaving a clear profit, to say nothing of the care and labor on them (which is pleasure) of $21 10. My mode of practice is to provide them an assortment of grain, of which corn and buckwheat are the principal; oats occasionally.—Sometimes boil whole, and sometimes grind, boil and feed hot. Mix in red peppers, chopped fine in cold weather. See that they have water once a day with the cold taken off—when there is none they can get. Clam or oyster shells pounded fine—also gravel, every day or two—when the ground is frozen or covered with snow or ice. Give them meat often; rare is preferable. The poor sort will answer as well. The should have a warm roost, and kept clean. Do this, and you will have plenty of eggs to eat and to sell.—D. Wellman, Jr., Woodbury, Ct., March 10, 1850.—New Haven Register.

Mrs Harriet Beecher Stowe Reads the Pope's Bull at Rome.

From the Independent, April 26.

Rome, March 29.—Mr. T., calling in an hour or two since, said, "Well, I suppose you know the excommunication is up at last."

"Not possible!" said we.

"Yes," he answered, "several persons have seen it. I saw, but could not get near enough to read it. It is posted at the doors of St. Peter's, and of all the churches."

Immediately we drove to St. Peter's, it being now time for vespers. As we entered the grand old court, the effect of the mingling of costumes and forms in the evening sunlight was picturesque and dreamy. A train of various religieuses came filing down the apple steps, the foremost of whom were all shrouded in deep blue, with the exception of eye-holes. They bore aloft a black cross, and walked chanting. Behind was a long train of of Sisters in black robes with white vails, also chanting.

A procession of college students in scarlet robes, with black caps, was passing inwards as they came outward, while monks, cardinals, officers, men, women and children were scattered in groups all over the steps.

At the door we saw two great printed sheets posted on the pillars each side, hedged in by men reading, with an expression of pleased satisfaction. A very handsome stripling priest was turning his large, dark, tremulous eyes upward in the same direction, with a face of boyish curiosity, while we made a note how exactly the classic cut of his features resembled some of the antiques in the Lateran museum.

Behind was a fat Dominican in his white robes, and by his side a scraggy, long-necked Capuchin, with coarse, brown woollen frock, little black scull cap, and deep-set, eager black eyes, and various priests in their great black shovel hats, all intent on the document before them, not a word spoken, but evidently pressing upon each other in their eagerness to devour every word. A similar group was gathered round the other pillars, but the chance of reading was so small that we pressed by into the church.

JUDSON'S PATENT
GOVERNOR VALVES,
FOR REGULATING THE MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye buildings, near R. R. Depot.
☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1854. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperture necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN

IS AT HAND!!

Let Every Republican Prepare for the Conflict!!

Circulate Truth among the People!!

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL

Six Months for Less than Cost of Paper and Printing!!!

READ AND BE CONVINCED!

The approaching campaign is to be a memorable one. The battle will be fought zealously between the friends and the enemies of Freedom, and the ground contested inch by inch. In view of these facts, it is apparent that the dissemination of Republican papers and documents becomes of vast and vital importance. In order to furnish the WEEKLY SENTINEL to the people of the North-West, during the Campaign of 1860, we have concluded to offer the paper, FROM THE 16TH OF MAY TO THE 16TH OF NOVEMBER, at the following unprecedented liberal terms:

|---|---|
| One Copy for | $0 50 |
| Twenty Copies, (to one address) | $9 00 |
| Fifty " " " | $20 00 |
| One Hundred do " " | $35 00 |

These terms will barely cover the cost of paper before it is printed; but we have determined to put the price so low that every individual Republican, or organized Club, in this or adjoining States, will use their best endeavors to scatter the SENTINEL broadcast in their particular localities, and thus accomplish more than by the circulation of ten times as many documents in any other form. Every Campaign subscriber will receive the Proceedings of the National Convention, to be held in May, and full returns of the election in November.

We need not urge upon our Republican friends the importance of placing this sheet in the hands of all. Let NO VOTER, or family in the State, be without the SENTINEL during the Campaign. Wheresoever facts are read, and the people have access to truth, Republicanism prevails.

Send in your orders as early in May as possible. ☞ Address

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN.

MILWAUKEE, April 9, 1860.

☞ REPUBLICAN PAPERS in this State, with whom we exchange, will please publish the above, or the substance of it, one or two times, and thereby lay us under additional obligation for the favor.

THE MONTH OF MAY.

It is May, it is May!
And all earth is gay,
For at least old winter is quite away;
He linger'd awhile in his cloak of snow,
To see the delicate primrose blow;
He saw it, and made no longer stay—
And now it is May! it is May!

It is May, it is May!
And we bless the day
When we first delightedly so can say;
April had beams amidst her showers,
Yet bare were her gardens and cold her bowers;
And her frown would blight, and her smile betray,
But now it is May, it is May!

It is May, it is May!
And the slenderest spray
Holds up a few leaves to the ripening ray,
And the birds sing fearlessly out on high,
For there is not a cloud in the calm blue sky,
And the villagers join the roundelay,
For oh! it is May, it is May!

It is May, it is May!
And the flowers obey
The beams alone which are more bright than they;
Yet they spring at the touch of the sun,
And opening their sweet eyes, one by one,
In a language of beauty seem all to say
And of perfume—'tis May, it is May!

It is May, it is May!
And delights that lay
Chill'd and enchain'd beneath winter sway,
Break forth again o'er the kindling soul,
And soften, and sooth it, and bless the whole.
Oh thoughts more tender than words convey Sigh out—it is May, it is May!

THE TEXAS CAMP-MEETING;

OR

PAUL DENTON'S BARBECUE

During the last week in September, 1836, the first successful camp meeting was held in eastern Texas. I employed the epithet "successful," because several previous failures had apparently rendered efforts of the kind perfectly hopeless. Indeed, the meridian at this period, was most uncongenial to religious and moral enterprise. The country bordering on the Sabine had been occupied rather than settled, by a class of adventurers almost as wild as the savages they had scarcely expelled, and the beasts of prey which still disputed their domain of primeval forests. Professional gamblers, refugees from every land, forgers of false coin, thieves, robbers and murderers interspersed among the race of uneducated hunters and herdsmen, made up of the strangest social miscellany, without courts or prisons, or churches or schools, or even the shadow of civil authority or subordination—a sort of unprincipled pandemonium, where fierce passions sat enthroned, waving its bloody scepter, the bowie-knife!—Let no man accuse me of exaggeration for the sake of dramatic effect; I am speaking now of Shelby county, where, ten years later, forty persons were poisoned to death at a marriage supper.

It will be obvious, that in such a community, very few could be disposed to patronize camp meetings; and accordingly a dozen different trials at various times, had never collected a hundred hearers on any occasion.—But even these were not allowed to worship in peace, uniformly the first day or night, a band of armed desperadoes, headed by the notorious Watt Foeman, and the executioner of the Shelby lynchers, broke in the altar, scattered the mourners, or ascended the pulpit, and threatened the preachers to a gratuitous robe of tar and feathers. Hence the prudent evangelists soon learned to shun the left bank of the Sabine, as if it had been infested with a cohort of demons, and two whole years elapsed without any new attempt to erect the cross in so perilous a field.

At length, however, an advertisement appeared, promising another effort in behalf of the gospel. The notice was unique, a perfect backwoods curiosity, both as to its tenor and mode of publication. Let me give it verbatim.

> BARBECUE CAMP MEETING.

> A SPLENDID BARBECUE.
> The preparations are being made to suit all tastes. The Gospel will be a good Barbecue; better liquors and the best Gospel. PAUL DENTON, > Missionary, M. E. C.
> September 1st, 1836.

This document was nailed to the door of every public house and grocery; it was attached to the largest trees at the intersection of all cross roads and principal trails; and even the wandering hunters found it in remote dells of the mountains, miles away from the smoke of human habitation.

At first many regarded the matter as a hoax, played off by some wicked wag in ridicule of popular credulity. But this hypothesis was negatived by the statements of Peter Brinson, proprietor of the Double Spring Grove, who informed all inquirers, that he had been employed and paid by a stranger, calling himself a Methodist Missionary, to provide an ample barbecue at the period and place advertised.

"But the liquor, the better liquor, are you to furnish the liquor?" was the invariable question of each visitor.

"The missionary said he would attend to that himself," said Brinson.

"He must be a precious original," was the general rejoinder; a proposition which most of them afterwards had an opportunity to verify experimentally.

I need hardly add, that an intense excitement resulted. The rumor took wings and flew on the wind, turned to a storm, a storm of exaggeration; every echo increased in its sound, till nothing else could be heard but the "Barbecue Camp Meeting." It became the focus of thought, the staple of dreams. And thus the unknown preacher had insured one thing in advance—a congregation embracing the entire population of the county, which was likely the sole purpose of his stratagem.

I was travelling in that part of the country at the time, and my imagination being inflamed by the common curiosity, I took some trouble and attended. But though my eyes witnessed the extraordinary scene, I may well dispair of undertaking to paint it; the pen of Homer or the pencil of Hogarth were alone adequate to the sublimity and burlesque of such a complicated task. I may only sketch the angular outlines.

A space had been cleared away immediately around the magnificent "Double Spring," which boiled up with sufficient force to turn a mill-wheel, in the very centre of the evergreen grove. Here a pulpit was erected, and before it was the inseparable altar for mourners. Beyond these, at a distance of fifty paces, a succession of plank tables extended in the form of a great circle, or the perimeter of a polygon, completely closing the area about the spring. An odoriferous steam of the most delicious savor diffused itself thro' the air. This was from the pits of the adjacent prairie, where the fifty slaves of Peter Brisban were engaged in cooking the promised barbecue.

The grove itself was literally alive, teeming, swarming, running over with strange figures in human shape, men, women, and children. All Shelby county was there.—The hunters had their rifles in their hand, and dogs barking at their heels, the rogues, refugees, and gamblers with pistols in their belts, and big knives peeping from their shirt bosoms, while there might be seen a number of well dressed planters, with their wives and daughters.

The tumult was deafening, a tornado of babbling tongues talking, shouting, quarreling, betting and cursing for amusement.—Suddenly a cry arose, "Col. Watt Foeman! Hurrah for Col. Watt Foeman!" and the crowd parted right and left, to let the lion lyncher pass.

I turned to the advancing lone star of all eyes, and shuddered involuntarily at the satanic countenance that met my glance; and yet the features were not only youthful, but eminently handsome; the hideousness lay in the look of savage fire; ferocious, murderous. It was the reddish yellow eyeballs with arrowy pupils that seemed to flash jets of lurid flame; in the thin sneering lips with their everlasting icy smile. As to the rest, he was a tall, athletic, very powerful man. His train, a dozen armed desperadoes, followed him.

Foeman spoke in a voice sharp, piercing as the point of a dagger: "Eh, Brinson, where is the new missionary? we want to give him a plumed coat."

"He has not yet arrived," replied the planter.

"Well, I suppose we must wait for him; but put the barbecue on the boards, I am hungry as a starved wolf."

"I can not till the missionary comes; the barbecue is his property."

A fearful light blazed in Foeman's eyes, as he took three steps towards Brinson, and fairly shouted, "Fetch me the meat instantly, or I'll fill your own stomach with a dinner of lead and steel!"

Liquors and Segars.

"HEIDSIECK & CO."

CHAMPAGNE.

THIS CELEBRATED WINE, OF THE above well-known brand, is unsurpassed for its rich boquet and general excellence.

The varieties of brands of champagne tend greatly, no doubt, to confuse the purchaser; but lovers of good and genuine wine, must look for "Heidsieck & Co" in full on the label, as well as on the corks and capsules.

"Thos. Hine & Co" Brandy Vintage, 1842. Connoisseurs of fine brandies have pronounced this to be fully equal, if not superior to any imported into the United States during the last twenty years.

Scott left Milwaukee for Hamburgh, June, 1859, and returned February, 1860.

Those wishing pure, unadulterated Liquors for medicinal purposes would do well to call and examine my stock, which for quality is unsurpassed by any in the West.

SAVE YOUR CARPETS!

THE GREAT ENQUIRY HAS BEEN made for a number of years by housekeepers, what shall we put under our carpets to protect them from wear and moth? This grand valuable discovery was affected and patented April 1st, 1856, by J. B. HARRINGTON, and is called

Harrington's Patent Carpet Lining.

This article having proved its utility has now come into general use, so much so that scarcely a carpet will be put down without it, and its cheapness puts it within the reach of every family. It is warranted to add fifty per cent. to the durability of Carpets, Oil Cloths and Matting. The details of its merits are too numerous to mention. It can be obtained at any of the principal Carpet Stores throughout the United States, and is manufactured only by the New York Carpet Lining Company. Also, extensive manufacturers of Mammoth Cotton Batting, and Comfortables. The best and cheapest that have ever been introduced in the market.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, and beautiful and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am, Yours Respectfully,
HENRY JENKINS.
Cor. Columbus and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it.

Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market St., St. Louis, Mo.

And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. feb22d&w3mo

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS
FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

Pony Express in Nine Days and Fourteen Hours.

ST. JOSEPH, May 7.

The Pony Express, with dates from San Francisco to the 25th ult., arrived here at half-past 9 last night, making the trip in 9 days and 14 hours. The last 120 miles were traveled in 8 1-2 hours. The Pony Express, which left St. Joseph on the 13th of April, arrived at San Francisco in 9 days and 17 hours from the time of starting.

The Indians had stolen thirty horses from the Pony Express Company between Salt Lake and Carson Valley.

The Legislature has passed an act to provide for a vote of the people to decide whether a Convention shall be called to revise the State Constitution.

The bill giving a bonus to the first and second telegraph lines across the Continent, passed both Houses of the Legislature.

It is estimated that seven thousand people have gone to the Washoe silver mines — some new discoveries of silver mines are reported.

The Legislature was to adjourn on the 30th of April.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—The Pony Express, with St Joseph dates to the 20th, arrived at Carson City at 1:30 p. m. to-day.

Oregon dates to April 21st are received.

G. E. Cobell has been nominated Democratic candidate to Congress, by a Convention held at Eugene City. The Convention failed to nominate candidates for Presidential electors.

The Frazer River mining news continues favorable.

COLIMA, Mexico, April 4.—We have lately had another change in the government.—On the 27th of March the Conservatives hearing of the near approach of about 5,000 Liberals from Zapatlan which they had taken and completely routed. Gen. Valdes, with a force of 1,000 men and arms, suddenly left the city, retreating towards Guadalajara.—The liberals entered the city on the 30th. Perfect order prevailed. The liberals have now nearly all left in pursuit of the retreating Mochos, and are marching upon Guadalajara, which, in connection with forces from Mazatlan, they confidently expect to take within a month. A courier reached here yesterday from Vera Cruz, announcing the unsuccessful attack of Miramon upon that city. In the evening, Colima was illuminated.

Later from Europe.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 6.

The steamship Brazil, from Galway on Sunday, 29th ult., arrived at this port to-day. She has 526 passengers for New York, for which port she will leave at midnight.

The Canadian and Kangaroo reached Liverpool on the 26th and 28th.

The political news by this arrival is not important.

Bell's Life contains a formal demand from Heenan for the belt, under the assertion that he won it. Bell's Life treats the claim as preposterous, and asserts that the chances were in favor of Sayers; and that had the referee witnessed the 37th round he would have awarded him the victory.

The proceedings of Parliament were unimportant. The reform bill was further debated, but no action was taken upon it.

Another cashier of the Union Bank of London had been arrested on account of a small deficiency of £200. There were no additional developments relative to Pullinger. A rumor of other serious discoveries is wholly unfounded.

The Prince of Wales will not visit Canada before the first week in July.

There is nothing new regarding the fight. A medical certificate declares that Sayers will not be able to use his arm for two months, probably more. £200 had been collected in the House of Commons, for the benefit of Sayers.

The voting in Savoy will exceed 100,000 in favor of annexation, with only 1,200 noes, and 300 who abstain from voting.

The Spanish Ministry had not agreed on a course to be pursued in the trial of Montelin.

Horrible Murder in Easton, Pa.

EASTON, Pa., April 8—3 P. M.

A horrible murder was committed near here this P. M. Mr. Thomas Richardson, an old, respectable and wealthy farmer, living three miles above Easton, on the Lehigh river, had an altercation with two of his laborers, which terminated fatally to all three of them. One of them caught Mr. Richardson round the neck with a scythe, and held him in that position while his companion beat him on the head with a fence rail, jamming it into his brain. Two of the sons of Mr. R., coming to his assistance, were threatened, and threats were made to fire the premises and murder the family if they were interfered with. One of the boys ran into the house, got a double-barrelled gun, and shot them both dead.

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 8—9 P. M.

HOUSE.—The House went into Committee on the Tariff bill.

In committee, on tariff, considerable debate took place.

Messrs. Taylor and Miles ineffectually introduced amendments increasing the duty on sugar.

A petition and an amendment to repeal the duty on sugar and molasses, failed.

SENATE.—A communication was received from the Postmaster General relative to dead letters, and was referred to the Committee on Post Offices.

Several unimportant memorials, &c., were presented.

Mr. Pearce offered a resolution to provide for the observation of the total eclipse of the sun on the 15th of July next. It authorizes the employment of a vessel, to transport not more than five astronomers to some point where the eclipse can be best observed.

Mr. Pearce made some remarks in support of the resolution.

Mr. Brown expressed the opinion that it would cost too much. A similar expedition was fitted out before to determine the parallex of the sun, and instead of $5,000 it cost $50,000.

Mr. Iverson believed that the government had no such power as that contemplated in the resolution.

Mr. Pearce said that if the Senator meant to say that he was an offshoot of old Whiggery, he was correct. He had adhered to the party as long as it existed, he would adhere to the Democratic party with equal fidelity so long as it remained what it now was, the only conservative party in the country. If any Senator meant more he was mistaken.—The Coast Survey, to which this matter belonged, was established before the Whig party existed.

After further debate the resolution was agreed to.

Mr. Brown presented a bill for deepening the channels of rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico, and authorizing certain States to levy tonnage duties. Referred.

Mr. Davis' territorial resolutions came up, and Mr Clingman finished his remarks commenced on Monday, arguing at length in favor of congressional non-intervention, and the propriety of leaving the matter to the decision of the Courts, and against putting a candidate for President on a platform on which he could not be elected. In the course of his remarks he referred to Douglas, Hunter, Johnson, and others, as equally good Democrats, whom he would be happy to support.

Mr. Benjamin followed.

Mr. Benjamin spoke at some length, asserting that the Cincinnati platform, properly construed, was sufficient. Under whatever circumstances was that platform offered at Charleston, it was with the understanding that it had two interpretations.

Mr. Pugh denied this.

Mr. Benjamin replied that it was admitted time and again in the Convention. It was avowed also that if the Convention put upon it that the citizens of the South had a right to hold property in the territory and the legislature had no right to affect that right that not a single Northern State could be carried. That was a fraud upon the good faith and honor of the Democratic party.

It was unworthy of Democrats to go into the canvass on a platform wearing two aspects. He would enter into the contest on no such platform. Let their principles be blazoned in letters of light upon their banner, and upon them let them stand or fall.

Mr. Clingman contended the Cincinnati platform embraced all the principles requisite for a candidate.

Mr. Douglas proposed to reply to Mr. Davis on Thursday.

Mr. Wade gave notice that he should press the Homestead bill to-morrow, unless overruled by a majority of the Senate.

Mr. Douglas thought it would have been better to have pressed it before he was attacked than afterwards.

Mr. Davis said he had not attacked Mr. Douglas; he had only advocated certain principles; he desired a vote, not an interminable debate.

Mr. Douglas was willing to speak, then, if the Senate prefer.

After a further debate the Senate went into executive session and adjourned.

M. E. General Convention.

BUFFALO, May 8—9 P. M.

Seventh day of the M. E. General Convention.

The Conference was presided over to-day by Bishop Scott.

Messrs. Slicer, Pike, Thompson, Goodwin, Cartwright and Kingsley were announced as a special committee to consider the communication of Dr. Luckey, made to the Conference yesterday.

Bishop Baker announced that in accordance with a resolution of the Conference, Bishop Morris would deliver a funeral address on the late Bishop Waugh, at half-past 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Upon resuming the order of business, an effectual attempt was made to refer all petitions and memorials without reading.

A petition was presented from Baltimore, asking that all in the church discipline relating to the subject of slavery be stricken out, and the whole subject be referred to the annual conference.

A memorial from the Black River Conference, asking that probation preachers be authorized to solemnize marriage, and one from the Cincinnati Conference in favor of the admission of children to full membership, were referred to the Committee on Revivals.

The committee which was ordered to prepare a plan for a Court of Appeals, and report to-day, made the following: The Court of Appeals shall be a standing committee composed of the Bishops and one member from each delegation, elected by the respective delegations. The right of challenge for cause shall be awarded to both parties. The Court may excuse members for sickness, interest, or other sufficient reasons; at least two-thirds of the whole court shall hear the case, a majority of whom shall be sufficient to determine it. An amendment to allow 15 members of the committee to render a verdict was rejected. After a hour's debate the report was adopted, the court deciding that the question of an appeal should be settled by the court itself. The previous action of the committee in appointing special courts of appeals was rescinded. A resolution was offered and referred to the committee on revisers, in favor of amending the discipline so as to allow of the election of presiding elders instead of their appointment by the Bishops. Adjourned.

New York Matters.

The American Anti-Slavery Society held an anniversary meeting to day at Cooper Institute, William Lloyd Garrison presiding. Addresses were made by Garrison, Dr. Cheever, Robert Davis and Mr. S. Stanton, Jr. The principal affairs of the Society are reported in a flourishing condition.

Philadelphia Matters.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8—9 P. M.

Mayor Henry was inaugurated to-day. The following portion of the address was delivered with much force and emphasis, and received with a torrent of applause: "Not only the intrinsic welfare of the community, but also its honorable repute depends upon a firm and impartial administration of the laws, and, unmoved by the popular clamor, I shall strive to the full extent of my power, to secure the full enjoyment in the city of Philadelphia, of every constitutional right of person and property."

Shipwreck.

NEW LONDON, CONN., May 8.—9 P. M.

MONETARY.

TUESDAY, P. M., May 8, 1860.

Exchange is in good supply, but has not at present any tendency to decline, selling at 1¼ premium. Currency continues close, and only the most acceptable paper goes readily at the banks.

WE have the following by telegraph from New York to-day:

MONEY—Easier on call at 5@5½ ℔ cent; short first-class paper 6@7.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Firm at 109⅜@109¾.

STOCKS—C & R I 65¾; C & T 29½; G & C 55½; I C scrip 60, M S 12¾; C B & Q 61½; M C 49; Hudson 42¾; Erie 20¼; N Y C 79½; Erie assented 20, P M Co 105; Pan 116¾; D & H 99¾.

2D BOARD.—Stocks dull and lower. Chi & R I 75½; Gal & Chi 65¾; Del & Hud 99¾; M S 2d bds 46¾; I C bonds 85¾.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.—The Herald of Friday says:

Money continues as easy as ever. Some lenders pretend that the rates are hardening, and that the supply is falling off; but we can find no trace of any change in prices. We quote, as before, call loans 5 ℔ cent; short first class paper 5@5½; 4 and 6 months, double names, strictly prime; 5½@6; second class 8@10, &c. The advices from Europe are very favorable in regard to money, breadstuffs, and confidence; but the heavy amount of cotton at Liverpool, and the quick inquiry for money which in part results therefrom, lead to some apprehension of a heavy fall in the staple. A few specie shipments from this side will assist holders of cotton materially.

The Journal of Commerce, of Friday afternoon, says:

The market is without further change in rates of interest. Some of the bankers will lend money at 4@4½ per cent. from day to day, and there are also instances where acceptances of well known bankers, at short dates have been taken as low as 5 per cent., but the general tone of the market is, undoubtedly, firmer than it was a week or two since.

The advices per London mail, just at hand, show conclusively that the advance in rates of interest at that point did not grow out of any financial necessity, but forms part of a scheme to secure an additional supply of bullion. Thus the letters speak positively of street rates for loans as low as 3½ per cent., while the discount quotations are maintained at 4½@5 per cent. Unless there is some further movement not now anticipated, it would not appear as if the high rates could be sustained.

Foreign Exchange is steady, most of the sterling bills bringing 109½; but the demand is not active, and the market is without excitement. The importers who deal directly with Europe have paid up their dues very closely, and a large proportion of the remittances are on account of purchasers of East India produce.

The advance in wheat at New York to-day, enabled sellers to obtain the figures they were asking at the close yesterday, No. 1 selling at $1,12@1,12½ in store, and $1,13 delivered; and Extra $1,16@1,17. The transactions on 'Change were quite numerous, but not large, the aggregate being under 15,000 bushels. The outside price for No. 1 spring was only paid for a few car loads, buyers generally refusing to go above $1,12. Before the receipt of the New York report several thousand bushels changed hands at ½@1c lower than the closing prices.

Not much done in coarse grains: Oats were held at 32@33c; Barley sold at 70@72c for good qualities, scarcely up to the standard of Extra. Shelled Corn 51c.

Flour did not partake of the buoyant tone of the wheat market, and the sales were confined to five hundred bbls, to complete some shipments, at $5,25@5,35 for fair to good country Extra, and $6,25 for city White Winter.

Freights are a shade firmer. The schr. Bermuda gets 5c for wheat to Buffalo. The M. Fillmore and Persian are loading for Oswego at 6½, and the Chas. H. Walker for Buffalo on owner's account.

CHICAGO MARKET, MAY 5TH.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, yesterday, were as follows:

|---|---|
| Flour, bbls | 1,725 |
| Wheat, bus | 19,023 |
| Corn, bus | 75,553 |
| Oats, bus | 4,059 |
| Barley, bus | 800 |
| Rye, bus | 230 |

The Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of Corn to-day were lighter than on Saturday, and the shipments heavy—amounting to 166,000 bus; and under an active shipping demand, as well as more favorable news from New York, and from Liverpool by the steamer Bohemia—the market advanced 2@2½c, with sales of about 100,000 bus at 50½ for prime River Yellow f. o. b.; 51@53c for No. 1 in store; 49@50½c for No. 2 in store, and 55c for Rejected. Wheat was also in better shipping request, and the market advanced 1½@2c, with sales at $1,09@1,10 for No. 2 spring. There was a better inquiry for low and medium grades of Flour, and the market was active at $5@5,20 for low grades to good common spring extras. Oats were quiet. Rye firm. Barley unchanged.

The continued scarcity of vessels caused to-day a further advance of ½@¾c per bushel—two vessels being engaged at 4½@5c for corn to Buffalo.

NEW YORK HIDE MARKET, MAY 4.—Hides meet with a fair enquiry to-day, and prices are steady, the sales included 500 Texan, 22 lbs average, at 19½c, 6 mos; 800 do at 18c, 6 mos; 800 Bogota at 22½c, 6 mos; 800 Rio Grande, 21 lbs at 24½c, 6 mos; 1,800 do at 24½c, 8 mos; 2,800 Buenos Ayres, 20@21 lbs, at 25½c, 6 mos; and 9,000 wet salted Chicago Calf Skins, for shipment to Havre, 10 lbs, 11c, 6 mos.

CINCINNATI MARKET.—The Gazette of Monday reports as follows:

Flour was inactive on Saturday, and the lower grades were easier, but extra qualities were firm, and choice white wheat was scarce. Some fancy brands were held at $6,25, and it was found difficult to fill orders for favorite qualities. There was a further slight decline in whiskey, the market closing at 17½. There was more enquiry for mess pork, with sales at $17,15 @17,25. Choice brands were held mostly at $17,50. The tendency of the bacon market favored sellers. There were indications on the part of buyers to pay 7½@9½, while holders talked pretty freely of a further advance of ½. Bulk meats received attention, and the sales were large for the season, comprising about 400,000 lbs. at 6¾ for shoulders and 8½@9c for sides. The latter rate was paid for about 100,000 lbs sides, averaging 46 lbs, by a house engaged in the English trade. The market closed firm at the advance. Very little done in lard. Buyers and sellers were rather off at 10½c for bbl.

There was a fair demand for sugar at 7¾ to 9½c. Molasses dull at 45@46c. Coffee quiet. Wheat firm, with a good demand at $1,41@1,45 for prime white; $1,35@1,38 for prime red, and $1.18@1,22 for spring. Corn advanced 1c, closing at 48@49c for ear in bulk. The receipts are not equal to the demand. Shelled sold at 50c for mixed in bulk, and 55c for white in sacks. Oats steady at 43@44 in bulk.

OSWEGO MARKET, MAY 7TH.—FLOUR—Steady. Sales of 700 bbls at $5,65 from Chicago spring wheat; $5,75 for red Western, and $8,25 for white Western.

GRAIN—Wheat dull. Sales of 800 bus Chicago white, and Indiana at $1,55. Corn unchanged but dull; sales of 500 bus Ill at 63c. Other grains quiet.

CANAL FREIGHTS—Lower; wheat 7½, corn 7 to New York.

LAKE IMPORTS—8,200 bbls flour, 7,400 bus wheat, 14,400 bus corn.

CANAL EXPORTS—5,400 bbls flour, 10,200 bus wheat, 41,600 bus corn, 2,110 do barley, 2,400 bus rye, 2,000 do peas. The amount of grain afloat from the upper lakes for this port is 257,000 bus wheat, and 355,000 bus corn.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—At Baltimore, on Saturday, there was a fair movement in provisions, with sales of 80 hhds bacon at 8c for shoulders, and 10c for sides; 90 hhds bulk meats at 7@9c for shoulders and sides—these latter prices were subsequently refused. Sales 250 bbls Ohio Whiskey. Coffee dull and heavy.

BOSTON FLOUR MARKET.—The Boston Courier of Saturday, says:

The flour market is steady and firm, but rather inactive. Some 7,000 barrels are shipping to London on owners' account. The sales have been at $5,50 @5,60 for common brands western; $5,75@5,87½ for fancy; $6@6,50 for extras; and $6,75@9 for superior ℔ bbl; including all kinds. Southern flour is firm at $6,25 for fancy; $6,75@7,25 for extras; and $7,50@8,75 for superior.

MARINE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, P. M.

REGULARITY.—The steamships Detroit and Milwaukee have not missed a single trip thus far this season, although there have been frequent heavy storms since they commenced running. They now make their trips across the lakes with the greatest possible regularity, scarcely ever varying more than ten minutes from the advertised time, unless it be to gain on it. The time table requires them to cross the lake in six hours, but yesterday the Detroit performed the journey in 5 hours and 40 minutes, and both the steamers have on several occasions made even better time than this without carrying more than the usual head of steam.

THE steamer Cleveland has had her boilers and engines thoroughly repaired; the former being supplied with new bottoms and new fire boxes, and she will be ready in a few days, to commence running between this city and Two Rivers.

GREAT ACTIVITY IN LAKE TRADE.—The Detroit Advertiser of the 5th says:

Last year at this time, the vessels of our lakes had literally nothing to do. The tugboats in this vicinity did not make enough to pay for fuel. This spring it is very different. For instance, during forty-eight hours up to yesterday noon, one hundred and sixty vessels loaded with grain passed here for the East. It is fair to estimate that an average would be thirteen thousand bushels per vessel, or near three millions of bushels. The tugboats have all they can do, and vessels and steamers are prospering. A most decided improvement has taken place in business matters. Most of the vessels from Chicago and Milwaukee stop here for supplies, which is a great item of trade for this city. A good crop in Michigan this year, and we are all right.

And we may add, that although freights are now very low, still they are better than at this time last year and the comparatively large amount of produce in the West at the present time, together with a good crop next harvest, will insure a continuance of this activity during the shipping season.

VESSELS PASSING DETROIT.—The following vessels passed Detroit on Saturday:

Bound Up—Steamer Arctic; propellers Cataract, Missouri; barks Geo. Thurston, J. Sweeney; brig W. Lewis; Schooners Granger, Grey Eagle, Two Brothers, Livonia, Powell.

Bound Down—Propellers Queen of the Lakes, Plymouth, Marquette, Comet, Burlington; bark Mary; brig Castalia; schooners Joe Grant, J. A. Sanders, Britannia, Sunbury, Traveler, J. Hibbard, E. Fletcher, Mathew McNair, Uncle Tom, John S. Minor, Gulielma, Hubbard, J. C. Pendleton.

THAT OPPOSITION LINE.—After making a terrible sputter about low tariffs, cheap fare, opposition, &c., and threatening the Galena Packet Company with total annihilation, the Illinois Central Railroad Company suddenly subsides—withdraws the new lines of boats, and—that's all. The Packet Company still exists, and the Milwaukee, Grey Eagle, Northern Belle, and all the rest of those noble steamers continue to make their regular trips.—La Crosse Republican.

Medical.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, ensuing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that, your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

IS A CONSTITUTIONAL disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this blood becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease upon any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there any one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which engenders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S
Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla

The most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D. Lyonville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Maris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. * * * Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,
IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.
